

Rearing Godly Daughters

A. The eulogy of a valiant wife (Pro.
31:10-31)

i. Introduction: The rare jewel of a valiant wife (10-12)

Rearing Godly Daughters

A. The eulogy of a valiant wife (Pro. 31:10-31)

ii. The resources of the valiant wife: Her cottage industry (13-18)

a. Works with willing palms

b. Brings food from afar

c. Rises at night

b. Fruit of her palms she plants a vineyard

b. Senses her gain is good

c. Lamp does not go out at night

Rearing Godly Daughters

A. The eulogy of a valiant wife (Pro.
31:10-31)

iii. The seam: The valiant wife's hands and palms (19)

Rearing Godly Daughters

A. The eulogy of a valiant wife (Pro. 31:10-31)

iv. The product of the valiant wife: Her social achievements (20-27)

- a. Opens hands to the poor
- b. Fearless of the winter
- c. Clothes her household in scarlet
- d. Clothes her bed and her body
- e. Her husband is known in the gates
- d. Clothes others by selling garments in the merchants
- c. Clothes herself with strength and dignity
- b. Laughs at the future
- a. Opens her mouth in wisdom

Rearing Godly Daughters

A. The eulogy of a valiant wife (Pro.
31:10-31)

v. Conclusion: The praise of the valiant wife (28-31)